BIG PUBLIC MEETING LAST NIGHT

The Thistle Rink Filled With An Enthusiastic Audience Who Heard the Questions of the Day Discussed by Hon. Frank Oliver and Hon. C. W. Cross — Mr. Griesbach Present

That the interest in the present political campaign is by no means waning as the day of final pronouncement draws near, the meeting in the rink last night amply demonstrated both by its size and by its enthusiasm. The meeting was addressed by Hon. C. W. Cross, Attorney-General in the new Rutherford administration, and Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior. The rink was rapidly filling up at 8 o'clock, when Clarke's orchestra struck up a familiar air, and pleased the gathering multitude with a number of excellent selections. Repeated cheering somewhat later announced the entrance of the speakers of the evening, accompanied by Mr. R. J. Manson, who led the way to the platform and proceeded to take the chair. Without preliminary remarks the chairman invited Mr. Griesbach, Conservative candidate for Edmonton, to a seat on the platform. Mr. Manson then introduced the first speaker,

HON. C. W. CROSS

The attorney-general received a hearty welcome from all sides. He expressed his pleasure at having the opportunity of addressing so many of the electors of Edmonton, especially as they were shortly to register their votes to decide whether or not the Rutherford administration should remain in power for the next four years. He hoped Mr. Griesbach would be present to speak because Mr. Griesbach and he were good personal friends at the beginning of the campaign and he trusted such would be the case at the close. Proceeding, Mr. Cross first took up the question of the provincial capital, referring to the agitation begun by a number of gentlemen in Calgary some seven or eight years ago for the forming of a new province, including in that proposal the location of the capital in that city. A review of the negotiations at Ottawa last February between the representatives from Edmonton and the Dominion Government was given by the speaker, with the successful issue thereof. Mr. Cross pointed out, beginning with the Maritime Provinces, and passing over the entire list of older provinces, in every case the capital was situated quite too close to the borders of a foreign power, and thought that the selection of Edmonton as the capital of Alberta was particularly appropriate because of the greater distance from the border. As matters stood, according to section 9 of the autonomy bill passed by the Dominion Government, Edmonton was to be the capital till some other place had been declared such by proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council. Mr. Bennett, the leader of the Conservative party, had pledged himself at Calgary to change the capital, if possible, from Edmonton to that city, and had said to his opponent, the Hon. Mr. Cushing, that if the latter would secure the removal of the capital to Calgary he (Mr. Bennett) would drop out. Later, at a meeting in Edmonton, Mr. Bennett had made the statement that he would not change the location of the capital till a vote of the new legislature had been taken, as indicating the wishes of the people. Still later, the leader of the opposition, when at Calgary, had stated that his position at the Edmonton meeting had been taken merely to sound the Rutherford Government. So it was plainly to be seen that at all events, Mr. Bennett and his party were pledged to Calgary as the permanent seat of Government, while Mr. Rutherford's cabinet was assuredly bent on having the capital remain at Edmonton. Now, which of the two leaders would the people of Edmonton trust? If they wished the capital to remain at Edmonton, would they trust Mr. Bennett, who had pledged himself to Calgary, or would they vote to sustain the Rutherford administration, who were pledged to maintain the capital at Edmonton?

Leaving the capital issue, Hon. Mr. Cross spoke of his appointment to the portfolio of Attorney-General in the new Government as being not only an honor to himself, but more particularly an honor to the city in which he lived. Since the day of inauguration the duties of his department had been enlarged, and as time went on would continue to increase. To his department had been referred the administration of the Liquor License Act, also the administration of the Criminal Law. The strict enforcement that had characterized the Government's administration so far would be sustained hereafter. He had found that at present there were complaints regarding litigation of smaller civil cases, owing to the great distance to be travelled in some cases, whereby great expense was incurred. The speaker proposed, at an early date, to remedy these grievances by submitting a bill in the House whereby litigation would be made easy of access and less expensive than at present. Regarding the present system of registration of deeds, he had found that the sum of $20,000 was being paid annually to the C. P. R. by the settlers of the country in connection with the execution of documents. The speaker proposed, that in the administration of his portfolio, he would make good this amount to the people by an enactment that would reduce the cost of registration from $5 to $1.50.

Proceeding, Mr. Cross passed on to the school question, pointing out that while the Conservative convention at Red Deer had not declared for the abolition of the present school system, Mr. Griesbach had previously declared he would abolish the system. The Conservative convention had passed a resolution that a test case should be taken to the Privy Council, by the result of which, no matter which way it went, that party would be prepared to abide. During his visits throughout the constituency he had found a decided diversity of Conservative platforms regarding the school question. In Victoria Mr. Sharp had the Red Deer plank; in Sturgeon Mr. Knight was "neutral," so that among the Conservative candidates generally the question went a-begging in the frantic attempt to catch votes. While personally opposed to a system of separate schools, he yet believed in guarding the rights of all classes and creeds and considered the present system a good one.

In conclusion Mr. Cross said that although he had not been able to canvass all the electors personally, that if they worked for him as hard in Edmonton as he had done for them elsewhere, he had no doubt as to what the result would be on election day.

W. A. GRIESBACH.

The chairman then called upon W. A. Griesbach, Conservative candidate for Edmonton. Mr. Griesbach had come in during Mr. Cross' speech and taken a place upon the platform, with a cheer from his supporters. Mr. Griesbach attempted at the outset to make a point by stating that the Licensed Victuallers' Association were supporting the Government with expectation of proposing a resolution to permit them to keep bars open on Saturday night until 10 o'clock. If he were elected he would oppose the resolution. He said he had no money to carry on the campaign. Mr. Cross had dwelt upon the fact that he was glad to see him at the meeting, but he had asked for an invitation to be present. He said it gave him great pleasure to be able to discuss the questions of the campaign at the financial and political expense of Hon. Mr. Cross. The speaker said that, like David of old, it was with fear and trembling that he spoke tonight in the presence of the Goliath of Alberta politics, the Hon. Mr. Oliver, Minister of Interior, but that, also like David, he was convinced of the righteousness and justice of the cause of the party which he represented, and therefore took courage. He did not believe in separate schools. In the Federal Parliament there were sixty-five members from Quebec, nearly all Roman Catholic. These had voted in a solid block and dominated the House. These were the men who wanted separate schools. They forced the cabinet to accept the conditions and were trying to force the separate schools upon us whether we want them or not, and the Minister of Interior was here for the purpose of carrying on the good work.

The speaker quoted from an article in the Canadian Magazine dealing with the predominance of the French Catholic element in the House and the advisability of not again having a French-Canadian Premier.

He contended that employees of the Department of the Interior were working for the election of Liberal candidates. Mr. Oliver had stated in the bye-election in North Oxford that the issues were for the Territories to deal with and now states that they are matters for the Federal Government. The speaker quoted from a copy of the Bulletin a statement of Mr. Maloney of St. Albert that Mr. Walsh of Calgary, had tendered him $1,000 if he would contest St. Albert constituency. Mr. Griesbach said he had telegraphed to Mr. Walsh and had received a reply that the statement published in the Bulletin was a direct lie. The speaker said that in regard to the question of the capital, he fully agreed with Mr. Cross that it should be permanently situated in Edmonton. His interests in Edmonton were as great, if not greater, than those of Mr. Cross. He had lived here all his life and was here to stay. If elected he would do his utmost to keep the capital at Edmonton. If the Liberals were returned to power in Alberta, would it do any harm to elect him in Edmonton? And if Conservatives were returned, wouldn't it be a good thing to elect him? He didn't see why a change of Government would prevent the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific, or that the G. T. P. was so closely allied with the Liberal Government that it would go to pieces if not backed up by them. The speaker closed with the statement that he had always had a high estimation of Hon. Frank Oliver, who had achieved some distinction in political life, but it gave him a thrill of regret to see him here to oppose the policy of national education.

HON. F. OLIVER

Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior was received with deafening applause. He was glad to have an opportunity of appearing on behalf of Hon. Mr. Cross. He had had the honor of appealing to the electors of Edmonton many times and had received the loyal support of Mr. Cross, and he would endeavor to give Mr. Cross the same loyal support. Mr. Griesbach had spent a great deal of time talking about him, and instead of throwing some light on the policy of the Conservatives in Alberta had exhausted his powers in generously attacking Mr. Philip Wagner and the speaker's humble self. Mr. Griesbach should have learned by this time that biblical references are dangerous. Mr. Griesbach, Mr. Oliver said, had likened the incident of his meeting on the platform with the Minister of the Interior to the encounter of David and Goliath. But in his attack, Mr. Griesbach did not use the weapon that David had used, rather had he used the weapon which Sampson had used against the Philistines. Mr. Griesbach, the speaker said, had also objected to him appearing as Minister of the Interior, upon the platform. He did not see any reason for objection. He was a citizen of Edmonton, and had as much interest in the questions of the campaign as any other citizen, and did not understand why his appointment to the cabinet was any reason for his disfranchisement. Mr. Oliver said that he did not intend to speak at any great length on the school question. The Conservatives stood only for the rights of Protestantism; Liberals stand for the rights of both Protestants and Catholics. The sentiments expressed in the article quoted by Mr. Griesbach

Why The Government Should Be Sustained

BECAUSE the Government adheres to the principle of Provincial rights, and is determined to maintain intact and unimpaired the full legislative and executive authority of the Province of Alberta under the constitution of Canada.

BECAUSE the Government is pledged to a strong, economical and business administration of public affairs, with prompt attention, without unnecessary routine, to the wants of the people in all parts of the Province.

BECAUSE that inasmuch as the revenues provided for the Province under the Alberta Act, are sufficient to meet all the present requirements of the Province, and are subject to large increases from time to time, in proportion to the growth of our population, the Government declares its belief that there should be no immediate necessity to incur any provincial public debt or to pledge, alienate or hypothecate the assets of the Province to meet any real public need.

BECAUSE the Government believes it the duty of the Government to assist in every possible way and particularly by the establishment of a system of dairy instruction by encouraging cheese factories, creameries, forestry, and fruit growing, by assisting the farmers and farmers' associations, to improve the breed of live stock of all kinds, by assisting agricultural fairs, by encouraging the utilization of all farm products, and the preparation or such products for the market in the most condensed and remunerative form by the collection and dissemination among the farmers and ranchers, of the latest and fullest information as to the best available markets, and by extending to them every legitimate assistance in reaching those markets with the least possible loss of profit through excessive freight rates or the intervention of middlemen.

BECAUSE inasmuch as the Provinces westward of the Great Lakes are peculiarly interested in the establishment of a new route to the seaboard alternative to that afforded by railways to the Atlantic coast and inasmuch as the creation of two new Provinces out of the North-West Territories gives the first opportunity for co-operation with this end in view, therefore the Government is of the opinion that the earliest possible steps should be taken to secure joint action by the Governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia in order to ascertain definitely and finally the feasibility of the Hudson's Bay route as an outlet for our commodities and to decide upon the best method of constructing a railway by that route to tide-water, whereby the long land haul may be diminished by one-half and the ocean voyage to European ports also decreased.

BECAUSE as the true development of the Province and the prosperity of its citizens depends in very large measure upon the enjoyment of proper facilities in all parts of the country for easy access to markets, and inasmuch as the rapid influx of population, and the establishment of new settlements, render it impossible and also unwise that the new local improvement districts, with their limited powers of taxation, should be called upon to provide such facilities without material assistance from Provincial revenues, the Government has declared its belief that they should adopt without delay a vigorous and practical policy of bridging the more important streams and of maintaining a first-class system of main thoroughfares to all market towns, the cost of which should be largely met out of the public funds of the Province.

BECAUSE the Government regrets the necessity which existed for the introduction into the Alberta Act of a clause continuing the exemption of railway land from taxation, and is in favor of urging upon the Federal authorities the advisability of removing the restrictions at as early a date as possible.

BECAUSE the Government recognizes the great importance of the milling industry in the commercial life of this Province and believes that the Government should foster and encourage this industry in every possible way.

BECAUSE the Government has declared its belief that the Government should maintain an efficient system of common schools in order to meet the wants of the settler, and to extend to the children of all classes of the population an equal opportunity to obtain a good primary education, that this system should receive liberal financial assistance from the Government revenues, and that all schools receiving such assistance and supported by taxation, should be subject in every particular to the direct and continued supervision, regulation and control of the Provincial department of education.

BECAUSE the Government stands pledged to take the earliest possible steps to induce the Federal Government to set aside a sufficient part of the public domain as a permanent endowment for said Provincial University and an Agricultural College in connection therewith.

BECAUSE the Government holds that in all municipal legislation for the new Province, care should be taken to give full opportunity to municipalities to retain or acquire control of all public utilities whenever they desire to do so and to protect them in every possible way against the encroachments of private corporations.

BECAUSE the Government holds that in all provincial legislation the desirability of retaining or acquiring control of all provincial franchises should be kept steadily in view, and that while business enterprise should be recognized and promoted in every legitimate way, nevertheless no laws should be passed or acts done which would shackle the freedom of the people in respect thereto.

BECAUSE the Government expresses its belief that in the establishment of all public institutions and the erection of all public buildings due attention should be paid to the requirements of all parts of the Province and that in selecting locations for same, the Government should consider the public convenience and the quick despatch of business.

BECAUSE the Government is pledged to the vigorous administration of justice by a firm enforcement of the criminal law, and a simple and prompt method of protecting civil rights.

BECAUSE the Government stands by the principles (1) that the intelligent opinion of the people is the true and just source of all political power (2) that the administration of public affairs should be under continual responsibility to the electorate; (3) that the true end of Government is the promotion of the welfare of the masses of the people by the creation and preservation so far as it is possible by the action of the state, of equal opportunities in life for every individual, by the vigorous repression of all encroachments on the rights of the people on the part of the monopolistic corporations, by amelioration of the conditions of life, and the redress of injustice, by a steady, orderly and progressive administration of affairs, and by watchful and continued attention to the wants of those new settlers whose courage, industry and thrift are creating the prosperity of the West.

BECAUSE admitting the sufficiency of provincial revenues the Government stands opposed to the policy of direct provincial taxes.

BECAUSE it endorses the policy of the land for the settler; holds that the public lands should be administered for settlement and not for revenue and stands for co-operating with rather than obstructing and interfering with the Department of the Interior in carrying on this policy.

BECAUSE the Government believes the Provincial constitution admirably adapted to the needs and conditions of the province and stands for an intelligent and energetic policy of carrying out the provisions of the constitution.

BECAUSE the Government stands for peace and unity among the people of the Province and solicits the aid of all creeds and classes in laying the foundations for provincial greatness and in working out the problems of the future.

BECAUSE the Government stands for the inauguration of a clear cut policy of development, progress and expansion along every line of Provincial life.

THE C. P. R. GETS BUSY

TO MAINTAIN ITS MONOPOLY

Official "Fixes" a Candidate for Haultain—The Struggle to Maintain the Grip on Alberta

Rosthern, Sask., Nov. 4.—At a meeting here Saturday night Premier Scott stated that the Canadian Pacific Railway was supporting Mr. Haultain's campaign with vigor.

He challenged James McKay, the opposition candidate, who was present, to deny that the railway was giving support to Mr. Haultain financially or otherwise.

Mr. McKay said as far as he knew the charge was untrue.

Mr. Scott then said that it was common report that Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R., walked around Montreal saying how he would fix Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the West.

Mr. Haultain wanted Behnis, a French Roman Catholic from Prince Albert to contest Batoche.

The latter refused because he could not support Mr. Haultain's educational policy. Brownlee a Canadian Pacific Railway superintendent, visited Benois and now the latter has announced himself for Batoche.

Calgary Albertan: It is no news to Calgary that the C. P. R. is using every effort in the city of Calgary to elect their solicitor, R. B. Bennett. Prominent C. P. R. officials in this city have quite frankly stated the fact that they look with favor upon the success of the Conservative party throughout the province and particularly in the city.

This is not surprising as the question of additional railway competition must certainly be one of the issues that in course of time will come before the legislature. It is to the interest of the C. P. R. that their friends are in a position to handicap any move for additional railways in Alberta, particularly in the south.

The activity of the C. P. R. officials is very apparent. Already the C. P. R. has bent every effort to assist R. B. Bennett in his canvass, and as the great work of that organization is the activity it exerts upon the last few days of the contest much more may be expected during the next four days.

If the people of Calgary and Southern Alberta desired an additional argument to convince them of the absolute necessity for the defeat of the Conservative candidates, particularly in the city of Calgary, this remarkable campaign of the C. P. R. officials furnishes a powerful reason.

The fact that the C. P. R. is using its influence to defeat Liberal candidates is known throughout Canada. The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto News argues that Conservatives have good chances of carrying Gleichen, Medicine Hat and Lethbridge on account of the influence that the C. P. R. exerts in those three ridings.

FRANK OPINIONS OF R.B.B.

(From the private diary of the Calgary Herald)

We've done the best for him that we knew how, but he's a hopeless failure.

It takes more than a silk hat, a frock coat and limber tongue to make a statesman.

If he is so sure of winning, why doesn't he resign the C.P.R. job? It would help us in the elections, and then, if he was beaten, the C. P. R. would give him the "hand-out" again.

Every time he opens his mouth he puts his foot in it.

We wonder nobody ever took up that ghost story of his that Alberta was fifteen times bigger than Manitoba and should get fifteen times the Manitoba terms. Perhaps they looked at the map.

Wouldn't he be a dandy to protect our interests from the C. P. R.? How many centuries would it take us to get rid of the exemption if men such as he ruled the province?

If it wasn't that Walsh was such a star to hand out hot stuff in interviews about success in the dim and misty future, R. B. B. would have put us all on the ice wagon long ago.

It's awful hard work to knock political gumption into a man who thinks he knows it all.

If it wasn't for the grand old party, we'd leave R. B. B. to fall into the grave he has digged for himself.

That was a pretty yellow proposition of his about that 160,000,000 acres of arable land still not taken up in Alberta, and yet we had to make the "bluff" of standing for it.

What a silly fellow he was to spring that road works canard at the Liberal rally, and within the hearing of the Minister of Public Works. That "It's a lie" of Mr. Cushing's has been heard all through the province, and now we will have to build a new fake story.

If he could only haul his mouth out for a while and tie it up in a knot and then do a little thinking, we wouldn't be in the hole we are now.

We should just like to have a "co-equal" and "co-existing" opportunity to let the trip-hammer fall on him when he makes those "breaks on the platform.

Well, after the evening of the 9th instant, we hope he'll stay politically dead, and give a Young man a chance.

SHOOTS A POLICEMAN

Man Runs Amuck With Revolvers In An Ontario City

London, Nov. 7.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon word was brought to the police that a man with two revolvers was running amuck in London South, shooting everybody in sight. Policemen Harry Green and Walter Smith set out to make the arrest. The officers approached and tried to grab him, when he turned and fired point-blank into Green's face. The bullet entered just below the left ear. He then shot Smith in the arm. The latter grappled with the man and finally overpowered him. He proved to be Thos. Flaxen, aged 22, a cigarette fiend. Green will die.

DROWNED FROM A CANOE

Haliburton, Nov. 7.—While crossing Eagle Lake, eight miles from Haliburton, Arthur Wenstri, Thos. English and Glass Armbarg, upset in a canoe and were drowned. The bodies of Arthur Wenstri and Thos. English have been found but Armberg's body is still missing. Arthur Wenstri was aged 26 years and single. He lived at Eagle Lake. Thos. Inglish was aged 20 years, single, and also lived at Eagle Lake.

ONLY DEAD LIBERALS GOOD

B. E. Gadsby in Toronto Star.

(Lines supposed to be spoken by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in reading in the press the tributes to Sir William Mulock on his retirement from public life.)

If I should die tonight,
The Mail would look upon my quiet face;
Perhaps, who knows would even have a tear to grace
The fact that Laurier didn't do too bad
Considering the troubles that he'd had;
And, considering this and t'other —who can tell?—
It would, that is, if I were dead all right.

If I should die tonight,
The World would come and stand beside my bed,
And take back all the hard things it had said,
And point out how I got the best of Tarte,
And prayed I did the state good service here;
And scribbling editorially explain
How well I stood with W. F. Maclean
It would if I were good and dead tonight.

If I should die tonight,
The News would gaze upon my placid brow,
And mutter: "Time for that third volume now,"
And add to my biography a leaf,
In which my virtues shone in high relief,
And print a yard of stately-worded woe
Where the Sharetti cartoons used to go—
It would, if I were really dead tonight.

If I should die tonight,
The Telegram would summon up a tear,
Give short, sharp, scalding screams above my bier,
And hold it a redeeming trait in me
That Canada owns half the G.T.P.,
But studious always compliment to dodge,
Would bar me heaven save through the Orange lodge—
It would if I were cold and dead tonight.

If I should die tonight,
The Hamilton Spectator would forget
That it had ever tried my soul to fret,
And, quivering with remorse, would softly say:
"We always loved poor, erring Laurier,
And though sometimes he caused our cheek to blench,
The only reason was he thought in French"—
It would, if I were dead for keeps tonight.

If I should die tonight,
Before my body was put under ground
The opposition press would gather round
And intimate that I had done some good,
That often I had been misunderstood:
And hint that, now that I was dead and gone,
I might take rank in history with Sir John—
They would if I were stark stone dead tonight.

THE LONDON POOR

APPEAL TO THE PREMIER

Wives and Relatives of Unemployed Represent Unfortunate Conditions to the Head of the Government

London, Nov. 7.—The desperate condition of the poor of London was brought to the notice of Premier Balfour by a remarkable deputation of wives and other women relatives of unemployed who did not hesitate to tell the Premier that unless something were speedily done for them they would be bloodshed. "Don't forget that hungry men are desperate men," said one. All had the same tale to tell of husbands out of work and starving wives and children. Enormous crowds of women from all parts of London marched through the streets.

WARWICK NEWS

Warwick, Nov. 1.—Smith and Hogman are threshing in the Warwick settlement again this week.

Mr. E. Richardson spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. G. Chase in North Warwick.

On the evening of Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woods entertained a number of their friends. Among those present were E. H. Wynn, Miss Mackenzie, Mr. Percy Lynn, Mr. McIntyre, Mr. John Bednall, Mr. John Cropley, Mr. Thos. Leask, and Mr. Gerald Northup. A very enjoyable evening was spent. The genial kindness and hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Woods is much appreciated.

Monday evening the 30th October, Mr. M. McCauley and Mr. Fane held a political meeting in our school house. There was a good attendance of the electors of Warwick. The speakers received an attentive hearing and the order was good.

Mr. E. Richardson has resigned his school in Warwick to take a position under the Provincial Government in Edmonton. Miss E. Small of the Strathcona high school, takes his place for the balance of this year. Inspector McCaig's report of Mr. Richardson's work is as follows:

"Pupils show good disposition towards work and are proficient in spelling, arithmetic and writing. Composition is fair and oral reading fair to good. Work generally of good quality. Mr. Richardson is teaching conscientiously and by satisfactory methods."

IN THE DOCTOR'S OFFICE.

Bennett, M.D. (to his assistant, the Conservative press): Newsy, I've got the old fellow under the impression that there is something serious the matter with him, so I want you to dose him liberally with the big bottle mixture, its being only sugar and water won't detract from its effectiveness, for I count on his imagination doing the trick. But dont, under any circumstances, let him see behind the screen.

The Cream Separator that is the Cheapest in the End.

There are some folks who are everlastingly trying to get "something for nothing." They buy a wagon at a "bargain" price because the agent says it's "just as good." And then, after a few months, when the tires and spokes have all loosened up, they cuss the wagon.

Price not the only Difference.

It's the same way with cream separators. You can buy many other separators for less money than the U. S. Cream Separator sells for, but before you've finished paying for the experiment you'll find price isn't the only difference. The cheaper separators soon get out of adjustment because built of cheaper material by inferior manufacturing methods; they consume twice the necessary amount of oil; they have a bowl that will not run true, and do not skim clean. The repairs in the first few years would pay the difference for the U. S. Cream Separator.

Durability is Important.

The U. S. Cream Separator has stood the test of time. Many of them have been in use for 10 years, and cost less than a dollar for repairs. They run easy, skim cleaner than others, have a simple bowl, enclosed gears, and a convenient low supply can.

The Vermont Farm Machine Co., of Bellows Falls, Vt., have printed in a handsome booklet a few of the thousands of letters from satisfied users of the U. S. Cream Separator. This booklet will save you money when you buy a separator, and a post card will bring it to you.

To insure prompt deliveries and to save freight charges for their Canadian customers, they ship from their warehouses at Montreal, Sherbrooke, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver, but all letters should be addressed to Bellows Falls, Vt. 405

HAULTAIN'S OPINION OF THE PRESENT SCHOOL SYSTEM

In 1902, when Mr. Haultain's Government appealed to the people of the Territories for an endorsement of their policy, one of the strongest planks in their platform was the splendid school system—the system that prevails today—that has been built up in the West. Here is Mr. Haultain's statement, which was published far and wide at that time:

"If there be one subject more than another which has deserved, and received, the fostering care of the Government, it is the education of the rising generation and developing their minds so that they may become intelligent and useful members of society. The difficulties which naturally bar the way to a complete educational system in a sparsely settled country, such as ours, have only proved stepping-stones to success, for the educational department has the proud satisfaction of knowing that we have right here in this country of great distances the foundation of an educational system second to none in Canada. There are various causes which have contributed to this, two of which may be mentioned: First, the high standard set for our teachers, which has had a consequential effect of raising the standard of the pupils; and, secondly, the large grants made by the Department to assist in the maintenance of rural and urban schools; these grants enabling schools in scattered districts to thrive, which but for the assistance given to the Department, would have ceased to exist."

VICTORIA NEWS

Victoria, Nov. 2.—Dr. Lawford has moved into his comfortable new residence, which is an ornament to the little village of Pakan.

Mr. Woodyard left last week for White Fish Lake, where he has a contract to erect a residence for Mr. Tomkinson.

The traction threshing machine owned by Messrs. Cromarty & Anderson is tied up on the south side of the River, waiting for the Saskatchewan to freeze up. This makes it very inconvenient for the farmers on the north side.

POLITICAL POINTERS

Vote for Alberta's prosperity.

A vote for the Rutherford Government is a vote for continued prosperity in Alberta.

A vote for Bennett's candidate means political strife and injury to the province.

Vote for Alberta, Rutherford and Cross, for Peace, Progress and Prosperity.

The Liberal policy is "The land for revenue purposes."

Bennett's policy is Strife, sterility, and stagnation. Rutherford stands for Peace, Plenty and Progress.

The assination editor of the Calgary Herald is still doing business at the old stand, and Hon. John Hall is melting the bullets for him.

W. L. Walsh, president of the Alberta Conservative Association is still trying to pour "it" on the troubled waters that encompass the "machine."

J. J. Young and M. S. McCarthy, M.P., are endeavoring to give character to "Jack" Hayes' candidature in Gleichen. Let's see, wasn't it Mr. Young's Herald that tried to give "Jack" a black eye early in the campaign?

Mr. Dan Maloney's report of the interview with Mr. W. L. Walsh, at St. Albert, is a feature of the contest in Alberta that will not down.

Mr. Bennett has made so many "breaks" recently that his friends are trying to form a "Bennett Club" whose motto will be "Speech is Silver, but Silence is Gold."

When R. B. Bennett read "Bob" Edwards signed open letter in the Eye Opener, he immediately stood in front of the mirror, and, striking an attitude, said, "Save me, save me, from the candid friend."

There are quite a number of these nomination deposits that Mr. Walsh will never see again.

The Pincher Creek Conservative candidate is running on the platform that the present school system is all right; Mr. Bennett doesn't say what he'll do; Mr. Griesbach won't be happy until the last vestige of religion is driven from the schools; and Jack Hayes, the opposition candidate of Gleichen doesn't give a tinker's blessing whether school keeps or not.

R. B. Bennett says that eight hours a day are not long enough for a miner to work underground. He also states that his statistics tell him that mining is not a more dangerous occupation than that of the ordinary artisan.

Every man who believes in Alberta and has confidence in the future should vote for Rutherford and Prosperity.

W. L. Walsh, the manager of the Provincial Strife Party, can furnish the deposit money for the Opposition candidates, but he cannot save it on election day.

It looks as if Mr. Bennett's action repealing the miners' eight-hour law, has put the would-be statesman out of business with the working men all over the Province.

The Liberal party made the progress of the West possible, and the people did the rest. Keep the good work going, by voting for the Rutherford Government on election day.

Let your ballot be cast for Harmony and not for Strife on election day.

The fate of the Province and the future of Edmonton and the great country to the north depends on on your vote.

TERRIFIC STORMS

SWEEP THE GREAT LAKES

Steamer Founders Near Fort William—Gale Reached Fifty-Four Miles an Hour on Lake Erie

Fort William, Nov. 7.—Exposed to the full blast of a gale blowing on the north shore the steamer John D. Rockefeller, is foundering on the jagged rocks of Isle Royal, where she was swept by a storm that raged last Friday. With her rudder and screw carried away and a hole eighteen feet in circumference in her stern she and the crew are battling with the waves. The Rockefeller and consort, Maida from Two Harbors to Cleveland with ore went ashore in a blinding storm.

Cleveland, Nov. 7.—A storm of great violence raged over Lake Erie last night and today. The gale reached 54 miles per hour and raised a tremendous sea. The Early Life-crew went out to a big steel steamer in distress off Euclid Beach.

Sandusky, Nov. 7.—The tug Castle coming into port with the barges Melvina, Montpelier and Knap in tow went aground on the channel bank. The Montpelier and Knap were blown far to the east and are hard aground.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE.

Trenton, Nov. 7.—Four young men named W. B. Urquhart, Frank Underdonk, and John and James Garhart, who live on the Prince Edward shore, opposite Trenton were crossing the bay Sunday about seven o'clock when their boat swamped. Their cries were heard from shore and a boat went out to their rescue, but the men had been so long in the water that on reaching shore Urquhart and Underdonk died from long exposure. Underdonk was postmaster at Albury and and leaves a wife and two children and W. B. Urquhart a wife and two children.

COAL MEN WANT DUTY.

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—For some years past there has been an agitation in Eastern Canada for the removal of duty on bituminous coal. The Dominion coal company of Nova Scotia will endeavor to offset this by asking the tariff commission for duty on anthracite coal which it is said is used for bituminous coal and is brought in free from the United States. There is no duty on anthracite now. The coal company will also ask for protection against British coal coming in under preference.

from the Canadian Magazine were sentiments that could not build up a great country or a great province. It was under the administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier that Canada had become a country desired of all the world. It was not because Sir Wilfrid was a Frenchman but the fact that he was of French descent had not prevented that policy. Liberalism stood for equal rights and fair play, and in Canada, where so many different races are congregated, Liberalism is the only ism under which this country could become great. Race against race, creed against creed, that was the Conservative policy. Conservatism meant that what is, is best; Liberalism meant that what is may be bettered. Conservatism meant stability; Liberalism means progress. Liberals were promoters of Provincial rights always, and the principles of Liberalism were to stand by the weak against the strong, by the provinces against the Dominion, and if, you like, by the minority against the majority. The 65 members from Quebec are not all Catholics. Some are Protestants and it was the Protestants of Quebec who demanded separate schools. The speaker said that when he was in North Oxford he did say that the issues were for the Territorial Government to deal with, and now said the matter had passed from provincial affairs. At that time the autonomy bill had not been passed, but now that it was and the Provincial Governments could deal with the issues of its province. Speaking of the land question, Mr. Oliver said that the policy of the Dominion Government was to administer lands for settlement and not for revenue; to give the lands to settlers as homesteads. The Conservatives would administer the lands for revenue and not for settlement. From 1883 to 1896 the Dominion Government had administered for revenue, and had received neither revenue nor settlement. For the last nine years the Government had been administering the land for settlement and not revenue, and had received both settlement and revenue. Could we afford to vote for Mr. Griesbach and his policy? Vote for Mr. Cross and receive settlement and also revenue for the Government. Suppose that land in Alberta were sold for $5 per acre. The buyer in a year doubled his money and sold for $10. Does this mean found money? Who will pay that profit but the citizens of Alberta who dig it out of the ground? If there are 8,000,000 acres in Alberta sold for $5, would mean that the speculator would buy for $30,000,000 and double in a year, which would be $80,000,000? Then the settlers of Alberta would have to pay the profit by their industry, and energy. If the lands were administered for settlement the settlers would get the land free and the money he derived from the development and collection would go into general circulation and be a benefit to everybody. If administration for settlement has been a good policy in the U.S., why not here? It pays to give away the land and not to sell it. Are we going to revert to the old policy under which the country was stagnant by voting for the Conservative administration?

Mr. Oliver then explained the connection of the Government with the Grand Trunk Pacific. Every railway had to borrow money in order to build. The Government at Ottawa had guaranteed the bonds of the G. T. P. and thus the railway was enabled to raise money. It was easy to see then why an adverse decision of the electors must necessarily affect the building of the G. T. P., and a vote for the Conservatives would certainly be detrimental to its progress. The close connection of the Conservatives and the great monopoly, the C. P. R., was known, and also that the leader of the opposition in Alberta is solicitor for the C. P. R. in Calgary. A vote for the Conservative party would be a vote for a C. P. R. monopoly.

Taking up the land question again, Mr. Oliver said that a little fact was better than a great deal of theory. Take the province of British Columbia. It has just as great resources as Alberta, large resources and more varied. Yet the Province of British Columbia was in debt, needed money, and was exacting every nickel from her resources. Why was it? Because when the Government received charge of the public domains, it administered the lands for revenue, and sold them to the settlers. And the time must come when the resources of British Columbia will be exhausted. In Alberta the lands have been and will be administered for settlement if the Liberals remain in power, and the consequence is that Alberta's resources will be continuous, and inexhaustible.

Mr. Oliver then referred to the charge of Government employees taking part in the campaign. He believed there was a man named Philip Wagner and that he was an employee of the immigration office, and, so far as he knew, performed his duties well. Mr. Griesbach had referred to Mr. Wagner as being "late of Fort Saskatchewan." The punishment Mr. Wagner had received he thought was more because he had been a Liberal than because he had done wrong. Again, there had been sales of school lands going on in Alberta for some time, and the men who were conducting these sales were honestly trying to do their duty. Yet in Calgary they were hooted at as political heelers by the Conservatives. The Conservatives were only talking about what they knew took place when they had the reigns of power.

Mr. Oliver resumed his seat amid great cheers, and as the orchestra struck up the national anthem the meeting broke up with cheers for Cross.
